

School Plays

Due to the inclement weather at Christmas, our plays were re-scheduled to February.

John Darby

County Coach, John Darby has returned to our school for some hurling coaching. Johns skill and expertise has certainly improved the childrens skill levels while still keeping the sessions enjoyable and interesting.

RTE Play

Children from 4th, 5th and 6th classes have been chosen to perform an RTE Radio Play. Under the direction of Mr. Victor Hayes, an experienced radio producer, the play will be recorded and available on RTE Junior towards the end of June.

School Tracksuit

Parents have voted in favour of a specific School Tracksuit.' A committee has been elected and will choose some options for parents approval.

School is reopening on Tuesday, 3rd May, 2011.

Hurling

The schools hurling team has qualified for the semi-finals in our section of the Sciath na Scol Hurling Competition. We have defeated Kilbonane and Vicarstown. This sets up a semi-final meeting after Easter with Shanagarry. The team has performed very well so far with all the players on the panel contributing to our success.

TG4 recently filmed our Sciath na Scol team in action against Vicarstown. Check www.tireltonns.ie for the link.
