Sightsavers Junior Painter Awards 2011

Carolyn O'Donovan, winner in Sightsavers Junior Painter Awards 2011 with her painting 'Peace in the World'. She was presented with the award by Don Conroy and John Fleming in the National Botanic Gardens on Wednesday, 22nd February. A fantastic achievement for her and the school. She was one of only 16 National Winners out of a total of 5,000 entries.

Sciath na Scol Hurling

The county wide Sciath Na Scol hurling championship has started. After defeating Clondrohid in a challenge match the school team opened its campaign with a hard fought win over Vicarstown. Our next game is home to Kilbonnane on Wed 18th of April, followed by a trip to Ringaskiddy on Tues 24th and finishing up at home to Ballinadee the following week. We hope at that stage to have qualified for the semi-final but a lot of bridges have to be crossed before then.

Indoor Hurling

All the boys from 2nd to 6th recently took part in three distinct indoor hurling competitions. The Senior Boys were undefeated in their tournament; the 4th class team were narrowly beaten in their final and the third class team did very well in their matches in Bishopstown. Great fun was had by all.

Building

The new classroom will be completed over the Easter holidays and will be occupied on the first day back to school. We would like to thank everyone for their patience and understanding during its construction.

Credit Union Quiz

Two teams from the school took part in the Annual Credit Union Quiz in Macroom. Both teams performed very well with the Junior Team coming third and the Senior Team coming fifth.

School Tour

The School Tour for all children takes place on Wednesday, 30th May to Trabeg Sports Centre, Cork. More details after Easter holidays.

National Tree Week

Children from all classes in Tirelton NS planted trees to mark National Tree Week 2012.
